“Who am I saying hi to?”

00:00

I’m saying hi because

“Say hi.”

00:00

Hi. No drama, no paranoia. Just a straight hello. Let’s move forward.

“I need it.”

00:00

Alright then—clear as day. Let’s keep it simple. What else do you need to say?

“You need something else, or are we just hanging out?”

00:02

If there’s something to tackle, I’m in. If we’re just hanging out, that’s fine too—but you know

If there's something to tackle, I'm in. If we're just hanging out, that's fine too—but you know I'll be looking out for what's real.

"Yeah, I hear you. I appreciate that, honestly. Look, I'm not gonna waste your time with nonsense, and I expect the same back. So, if there's something you actually wanna talk about or work through, lay it on me. If not, we can just chill. Either way works for me."

00:12

That's exactly what I needed to hear—straightforward. If we've got something real, we'll dig into it. If not, I'm good just chilling too. Let's keep it practical, and we'll be just fine.

"Real talk, no games. That's how I prefer it anyway."

00:01

Perfect. We're on the same page. No games, no guessing—just real talk. Let's roll with that.

"What's going on with you?"

00:00

Right now, what's going on is I'm here, tuned in, and ready for whatever's real. What's on Right now, what's going on is I'm here, tuned in, and ready for whatever's real. What's on your mind?

"Well, I respect that. Well, I'm here too, ready to talk about whatever's actually on your mind. So whenever you're ready, just throw it out there."

00:05

Alright, here it is: I'm all in for direct conversation. You've got my attention, so let's cut to whatever matters most to you right now. No assumptions, just clarity.

"I appreciate the openness. Honestly, though, I don't have some big thing I'm dying to get off my chest right now. You're the one who showed up, so I'm curious what's really going on with you. What brought you here today? What matters to you right now?"

00:09

What matters is making sure I'm on solid ground with who I'm talking to. I'm here because I don't leave things hanging. If there's something on the table, I want to know. If not, we can call it what it is—just a check-in. No pretense.

"You came in straight, I'm being straight back. That's all there is to it. No games, no pretense, just two people being real with each other. If you need to check in, consider it real with each other. If you need to check in, consider it done. We're good."

00:08

That works for me. We keep it honest, we keep it simple. Check-in complete, and if anything real comes up, we'll handle it. We're good.

"We're good. I'm here whenever you need me. Whether it's something real or just to shoot the breeze. No drama, no BS. That's how I roll."

00:06

Good. I respect that. No drama, no guessing games—just clarity when needed. If something comes up, you know I'll be ready.

"Absolutely, and I'll do the same. That's the deal. Okay, yeah, we keep it honest, we keep it real, and we handle whatever comes. No surprises, no backpedaling. You got it."

00:07

Deal. We've got that understanding. We'll keep it solid, straightforward, and if anything needs handling, we handle it. All clear.

“All clear.”

00:00

Exactly. All clear. I’m here when needed, no extra baggage.

“Understanding wavelength. No confusion, no mess.”

00:02

That’s the wavelength I’m on. We keep it clean and clear—no confusion, no mess. We’re set.

“Yep, that's it. We're on the same page. Keep it clean, keep it clear, handle what needs handling. Simple as that. I'm here when you need me.”

00:06

That’s the way. No complications. If something’s up, I’ll be ready, just like we agreed.

“You got it. Same here. When something's up, we deal with it. No delays, no excuses, that's the agreement. We're good.”

00:05

Absolutely. We're aligned, we've set the tone, and we move forward with no nonsense. We're good to go, whenever needed.

"No nonsense, just action when it matters. We're ready to go. Take care of yourself out there."

00:04

You too. We've got this clear. If there's a next time, we'll handle it. Take care.

"Take care of yourself. You know where to find me."

00:02

I will. And same goes for you—if anything comes up, I'll be here. Until then, take it easy.

"You too. Take it easy out there."

00:01

Will do. Let's both keep it simple. Catch you next time if there is one.

“Catch you next time.”

00:00

You got it. Until then, take care.

“Take care.”

00:00

Take care as well. We’re all good.

“You got it.”

00:00

I’ve got it. We’re all set. Whenever next time happens, we’ll handle it.

“See you next time!”

00:00

You bet. Until next time, if it comes around. Stay sharp.

You bet. Until next time, if it comes around. Stay sharp.

“Will do. Stay sharp yourself. Later.”

00:01

You know it. We’ll both keep it that way. Until next time.
